

Partner and head of Milan Office of the Global Investments Innovation Incentives (Gi3) team - STS Deloitte. Graduated in Economics with master's degree in tax and finance at Ministry of Economy, he gained a long experience (over 15 years) in both national and international taxation, with deep experience in designing, implementing and supporting tax incentives (including R&D tax credit, Industry 4.0 incentives, Patent Box and innovative start-up incentives) as well as government grants.

Qualified as Italian Chartered Accountant (Dottore Commercialista) and as Qualified Statutory Auditor (Revisore Contabile).

Coordinator of the sub-commission "Industria 4.0 ed incentivi fiscali" at Milan Association of Chartered Accountants, author of various articles and speaker at various conferences.